Item 3- Disciplinary Information

Investment Advisor Representatives are required to disclose all material facts regarding any legal or disciplinary events that would be material to your evaluation of the representative. Aaron Katsman has no information applicable to this Item.

Item 4- Other Business Activities

Aaron Katsman is a Registered Representative of PORTFOLIO RESOURCES GROUP, INC., a registered broker-dealer and member of FINRA, SIPC, MSRB, and FSI. He is compensated through commissions based on the sale of securities, investment products, and trails received from the sale of mutual funds. Approximately 97% of his income is derived from these non-advisory activities.

This may pose a conflict of interest to the extent that he could have a financial incentive to recommend securities and other investments that may result in commissions, brokerage fees, 12b-1 fees or other payments. However, Aaron Katsman is constrained by fiduciary principles to act in your best interest. In addition, you are under no obligation to purchase any recommended commission based products.

Mr. Katsman has appeared on CNBC's Squawk Box, as well as, being a contributor and personal finance columnist to both SeekingAlpha.com and The Jerusalem Post, and he is frequently invited to lecture on the Israeli economy.

He is a Chairman of the Board of the Bet Knesset Obel Ahron Synagogue, Jerusalem, Israel and a Neighborhood Councilman for the Ginot Hair Community Council Jerusalem, Israel. Mr. Katsman is also in the Board of Directors of Mesila, a non-profit organization dedicated to combating poverty by empowering men, women and children to seek, achieve and maintain economic self sufficiency and financial stability.

Aaron Katsman is author of the book Retirement GPS: How to Navigate Your Way to A Secure Financial Future with Global Investing (McGraw-Hill).

Mr. Katsman is also a RetireMentor for marketwatch.com.

Item 5- Additional Compensation

Aaron Katsman does not receive compensation for advisory services other than fees paid by the client, or as disclosed in the client's Investment Management Agreement.

Item 6 - Supervision

Aaron Katsman is supervised by Antonio Camejo, Chief Compliance Officer. Antonio Camejo can be reached at 305-372-0299 Ext. 405 or at acamejo@prginc.net.

Aaron Katsman is required to adhere to PRAG processes and procedures as described in our Code of Ethics. We will monitor the advice that Mr. Katsman gives you by reviewing the relevant account opening documentation when the relationship is established and reviewing client correspondence periodically. In addition, account activity is reviewed at least annually to ensure that trading is in line with your stated objectives.

The firm utilizes a team approach in designing and supervising client portfolios. The Investment Committee reviews policies and strategies affecting client investments. It is a consultative body which confers from time to time to analyze market conditions and discuss general investment ideas and/or review specific products which may be suitable for certain types of clients. Members of the committee are available to Investment Advisor Representatives for consultations regarding individual client portfolios, or the suitability of specific products. The Committee recommends that Investment Advisor Representatives review the following with clients at least once a year: investment objectives, targeted allocation, current allocation, suitability, performance, number of trades, monthly distributions, concentrated positions, diversification, and outside holdings. PRAG current Investment Committee members are: Antonio Camejo, Chairman; J. Christopher Cogswell, AIF® CCIP® (Portfolio Manager, PRAG Managed Risk Strategies); Douglas Goldstein, CFP®; Aaron Katsman; Ann-Marja Lander CFP® AIF®; Thomas L. Moser (Portfolio Manager, High Impact Investments), Associate Director; Joyce K. Moore, ChFC, LUTCF.

Item 2- Educational Background and Business Experience

Harold J. Moran, born November 23, 1960, is a Registered Representative (RR) of Portfolio Resources Group and an Investment Advisor Representative (IAR) of Portfolio Resources Advisory Group (PRAG) since September 2011. Harold J. Moran heads up the Saratoga Springs Branch office of Portfolio Resources Group, Inc. A highly experienced Certified Financial Planner®, Mr. Moran attributes his success to the fact that he enjoys working with "creative, thoughtful, and intentional people who ask the big questions and lead interesting lives." Mr. Moran believes that financial and life planning, as well as asset management, must focus first and foremost on client needs and values. With this solid foundation, he then crafts, implements, and monitors strategic action plans to help them achieve their goals. Helping clients accomplish what is truly important to them "is highly energizing and rewarding, but requires commitment to the process," according to Mr. Moran. He believes that developing collaborative long-term client relationships is what counts. "Helping clients secure their financial future, while at the same time being sensitive to their ethical and social values, has resulted in a positive impact on their communities and the world," according to Mr. Moran.

Educational Background:

Harold Moran graduated from SUNY, Albany in 1985.

Professional Designations and Licenses:

Harold Moran has the Series 6, 62 & 63 securities licenses since 1986 and has been New York State Life, Disability & Health Insurance licensed since 1987. Harold Moran is a Certified Financial Planner™ practitioner since 1991, and Accredited Investment Fiduciary® designee since 2004. As a CFP® practitioner, he provides high level financial planning services; as an AIF®, he manages investment processes according to a defined "fiduciary standard of care."

The CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ (CFP®) designation is issued by the Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. Candidates are required to complete a CFP-board registered program. They must also pass the CFP Certification Examination, which is administered in 10 hours over a two-day period. The exam includes case studies and client scenarios designed to test one's ability to correctly diagnose financial planning issues and apply one's knowledge of financial planning to real world circumstances. Certified individuals are required to complete 30 hours of continuing education every two years, including two hours on the Code of Ethics and other parts of the Standards of Professional Conduct. As a prerequisite to sitting for the CFP Certification Examination, candidates must hold a bachelor's degree (or higher) from an accredited college or university and have at least 3 years of full time personal financial planning experience. Administered by fi360, the Accredited Investment Fiduciary® (AIF®) professional designation demonstrates knowledge and competency in the area of fiduciary responsibility and communicates a commitment to standards of investment fiduciary excellence. Holders of the AIF® mark have successfully completed a specialized program on investment fiduciary standards and subsequently passed a comprehensive examination. Six hours of continuing education is required annually in order to maintain the designation.

Item 3- Disciplinary Information

Investment Advisor Representatives are required to disclose all material facts regarding any legal or disciplinary events that would be material to your evaluation of the representative. Harold J. Moran has no information applicable to this Item.

Item 4- Other Business Activities

Harold J. Moran is a Registered Representative of PORTFOLIO RESOURCES GROUP, INC., a registered broker-dealer and member of FINRA, SIPC, MSRB, and FSI. Harold J. Moran is also licensed to sell fixed and variable annuities, long-term care, disability income and life insurance. He is compensated through commissions based on the sale of securities, investment and insurance products, and trails received from the sale of mutual funds. Approximately 5% of his income is derived from these non-advisory activities. This may pose a conflict of interest to the extent that he could have a financial incentive to recommend securities and other investments that may result in commissions, brokerage fees, 12b-1 fees or other payments. However, Harold J. Moran is constrained by fiduciary principles to act in your best interest. In addition, you are under no obligation to purchase any recommended insurance products and/or commission based products.

Harold J. Item 2- Educational Background and Business Experience

J. Chris Cogswell, born in 1967, is a Registered Representative (RR) of Portfolio Resources Group and an Investment Advisor Representative (IAR) of Portfolio Resources Advisory Group (PRAG) since January 2008. Since November 2014 Chris is the Portfolio Manager of the PRAG Managed Risk SRI Strategy. From July 2002 to December 2007, Chris was an investment adviser representative of Financial West Group.

Chris established Chancery Financial Advisors in Louisville, Kentucky in 2002, with the vision of servicing clients with the help of a talented and character driven team of people. To that end, Chris has put together an office and built relationships with people that appreciate that same vision. Prior to establishing Chancery Financial Advisors, Chris lived and worked in Hong Kong and in China in the investment banking industry.

Business Experience:

Chris worked as an equity analyst with Peregrine Brokerage Ltd. in Hong Kong covering the Chinese stock markets from 1994 through 1996. He held the same role with Nikko Research Center from 1996 through 1998, and was based in Shanghai from 1997 to 1998. During this time Chris traveled throughout China visiting companies and developing relationships that he maintains to this day. Chris left the banking world for the corporate world, working in Strategic Investments for Distacom Communications Ltd. in Hong Kong from 1998 through 1999. He aided Distacom in the management of its US$1bn wireless investment portfolio, including investments in Japan, Hong Kong, India, Malaysia, and Thailand.

Educational Background:

Chris graduated Indiana University, Bloomington graduating in 1989 with a BA in History from the College of Arts and Sciences, and a Certificate of Public Affairs from the School of Public and Environmental Affairs. His Asian history studies at IU led him to study Chinese culture and language in Beijing for an academic year. Chris received a degree in Mandarin Chinese from the Beijing Foreign Language Normal College in 1990 and a Master of International Management (MIM) with a concentration in finance at the Thunderbird School of Global Management in 1993.

Professional Designations and Licenses:

Chris is an Accredited Investment Fiduciary® and a member of the Center for Fiduciary Studies. In addition Chris is a Certified Catholic Investing Practitioner®. He has both Series 7 and Series 66 registrations. He has a Life Insurance License in Kentucky.

Administered by fi360, the Accredited Investment Fiduciary® (AIF®) professional designation demonstrates knowledge and competency in the area of fiduciary responsibility and communicates a commitment to standards of investment fiduciary excellence. Holders of the AIF® mark have successfully completed a specialized program on investment fiduciary standards and subsequently passed a comprehensive examination. Six hours of continuing education is required annually in order to maintain the designation.

As a Certified Catholic Investing Practitioner®, certified by the Association for Catholic Investing, Chris has had training to be able to integrate Catholic social criteria into the investment decision process. As a CCIP®, Chris is also a member in good standing with the Financial Advocacy Network.

The Association for Catholic Investing was formed to work with all types of registered financial advisers and investors who wish to integrate Catholic social criteria into their investment decisions. To meet the educational needs of investment advisors, interested individuals, and Catholic organizations, the Association for Catholic Investors provides dedicated educational services. Financial professionals receive educational training on the background of Catholic investing and certification testing. After successfully passing the testing, the Association accepts them into membership and confers the designation "Certified Catholic Investing Practitioner". The CCIP® designation requires a commitment to Catholic values and an understanding of the principles supported by the US Catholic Bishops. Qualification is maintained on an annual basis in order to assure that the practitioner remains current in the investing guidelines of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops. Members are automatically listed in the Financial Advocacy Network that provides opportunities for corporate engagement and access to proxy voting recommendations.

Personal:

Chris is married to Ampy Lee Cogswell, a fellow alum of Thunderbird; they have two adopted sons. He can't find enough time for cycling, reading up on economics, markets and personal finance issues, or learning what makes successful people. Chris is a member of the St Martin of Tours Catholic parish in downtown Louisville, Kentucky.

Item 2- Educational Background and Business Experience

Krista Strohoffer, born in 1970, is a Registered Representative (RR) of Portfolio Resources Group (PRG) and an Investment Advisor Representative (IAR) of Portfolio Resources Advisory Group (PRAG) since January 2008. Krista helps her clients identify their financial goals and helps them develop a strategy to reach them. These goals might include a comfortable retirement, education savings, or a first time home purchase. During this process, Krista spends a great deal of time educating her clients. She believes that knowledge is power and with financial knowledge comes financial freedom. Krista is also a firm believer that everyone deserves and can benefit from professional financial advice regardless of their net worth or investable assets.

Krista has specialized in Sustainable and Socially Responsible Impact Investing since 1999. She and her clients believe that money can and does make a difference and that how you invest can have a positive socio-economic and environmental impact. When selecting investments, Sustainable and Socially Responsible Impact Investing looks beyond the financials to include the environmental, social and governance (ESG) records of a particular investment. How a company treats their employees, their community, the environment and the consumers of their products sheds light on how well that company is managed and how well that company is likely to compete in the long term.

Business Experience:

Krista Strohoffer is a licensed investment adviser representative. She received her first license in 1998 and started Principled Investing LLC, in January 2006. Principled Investing LLC is a DBA of Krista Strohoffer who is an Investment Advisor Representative (IAR) of PRAG and a Registered Representative of PRG.

Prior to working with Portfolio Resources Group and Portfolio Resources Advisory Group, Krista was an Investment Advisor Representative at Financial West Group from January 2006 to December 2007. Prior to that, Krista worked with Citigroup Global Markets from May 2005 to December 2005, at Morgan Stanley from August 2004 to May 2005 and at Walnut Street Securities from November 1999 to July 2004.

Educational Background:

Krista graduated from George Washington University in Washington, DC in 1997 with a Master of Arts Cum Laude and was a Fulbright Scholar in Budapest Hungary from 1996-1997. She completed Teaching English as a Foreign Language (TEFL) Certification from Hamline University in St. Paul, Minnesota in 1995. She graduated from the University of Minnesota Twin Cities in 1994 with a Bachelor of Arts Cum Laude and was a Samantha Smith Scholar in Budapest Hungary from 1990-1991.

Professional Designations and Licenses:

Krista Strohoffer is a Certified Financial Planner™ and Accredited Investment Fiduciary®. She has a Series 6 (Investment Company Products/Variable Contracts Limited Representative), a Series 7 (General Securities Representative), and a Series 66 (Uniform Combined State Securities Agent and Investment Advisor) Securities Licenses. She is also Licensed Agent of Life, Health and Variable Annuities.

The CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ (CFP®) designation is issued by the Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. Candidates are required to complete a CFP-board registered program. They must also pass the CFP Certification Examination, which is administered in 10 hours over a two-day period. The exam includes case studies and client scenarios designed to test one's ability to correctly diagnose financial planning issues and apply one's knowledge of financial planning to real world circumstances. Certified individuals are required to complete 30 hours of continuing education every two years, including two hours on the Code of Ethics and other parts of the Standards of Professional Conduct. As a prerequisite to sitting for the CFP Certification Examination, candidates must hold a bachelor's degree (or higher) from an accredited college or university and have at least 3 years of full time personal financial planning experience.

Administered by fi360, the Accredited Investment Fiduciary® (AIF®) professional designation demonstrates knowledge and competency in the area of fiduciary responsibility and communicates a commitment to standards of investment fiduciary excellence. Holders of the AIF® mark have successfully completed a specialized program on investment fiduciary standards and subsequently passed a comprehensive examination. Six hours of continuing education is required annually in order to maintain the designation.

Item 3- Disciplinary Information

Investment Advisor Representatives are required to disclose all material facts regarding any legal or disciplinary events that would be material to your evaluation of the representative. Krista Strohoffer has no information applicable to this Item.

Item 4- Other Business Activities

Krista Strohoffer is a Registered Representative of PORTFOLIO RESOURCES GROUP, INC., a registered broker-dealer and member of FINRA, SIPC, MSRB, and FSI. Krista Strohoffer is also licensed to sell variable annuities and life insurance. She is compensated through commissions based on the sale of securities, investment and insurance products, and trails received from the sale of mutual funds. Approximately 15% of her income is derived from these non-advisory activities. This may pose a conflict of interest to the extent that she could have a financial incentive to recommend securities and other investments that may result in commissions, brokerage fees, 12b-1 fees or other payments. However, Krista Strohoffer is constrained by fiduciary principles to act in your best interest. In addition, you are under no obligation to purchase any recommended insurance and/or commission based products.

Krista offers variable products and life insurance and utilizes various brokerage general agencies including Crump Insurance Co. which represents over 100 individual insurance carriers.

Item 5- Additional Compensation

Krista Strohoffer does not receive compensation for advisory services other than fees paid by the client, or as disclosed in the client Investment Management Agreement.

Item 6 - Supervision

Item 2- Educational Background and Business Experience

Tom Moser, born in 1953, is a Registered Representative (RR) of Portfolio Resources Group and Associate Director and Investment Advisor Representative (IAR) of Portfolio Resources Advisory Group (PRAG) since January 2008.

Thomas Moser is Founder and President of High Impact Investments®. His expertise is in portfolio management of clean energy, clean water, healthy food and preventative health care solution company stocks.

Business Experience:

Mr. Moser joined the company that was to become First Affirmative Financial Network as a financial planner in 1989. His “early on” personal interest in solar, wind, and geothermal were an outgrowth of his desire to leverage time, money and work towards making the greatest planet impact. The High Impact Growth portfolio was launched in 2003 and the High Impact Growth and Income portfolio was launched in 2009, both as part of First Affirmative Financial’s Generation program. Since that initial launch High Impact® has evolved by moving onto the Envestnet and the Adhesion Wealth trading platforms.

Since February 2008 Tom Moser has been an investment adviser representative of Financial West Group. From May 2007 to June 2008 he was an investment adviser representative of Responsible Portfolio Management, LLC. From February 2002 to December 2007 Tom was an investment adviser representative of Financial West Group. From August 1999 to December 2004 he was an investment adviser representative of First Affirmative Financial Network LLC. He is an Associate Director of PRAG and a member of its Investment Committee. As a broker, Tom Moser was a Registered Representative (RR) of Financial West Group from October 2001 to December 2007, of Walnut Street Securities, Inc. from October 1990 to June 2001, and of Associated Planners Securities Corporation from June 1989 to October 1990.

Educational Background:

Mr. Moser graduated with a MA in Education in 1978 from the University of Arizona. He graduated with a BA in Education in 1975, likewise from the University of Arizona.

Professional Designations and Licenses:

Tom has a Series 7 Securities License, a Series 24, Series 63 and Series 65.

Item 3- Disciplinary Information

Investment Advisor Representatives are required to disclose all material facts regarding any legal or disciplinary events that would be material to your evaluation of the representative. Tom Moser is a named party in a customer dispute regarding suitability filed with FINRA and the SEC on September 21, 2016. and is the object of a pending FINRA Arbitration which has not yet been adjudicated.

Item 4- Other Business Activities

Tom Moser is a Registered Representative of PORTFOLIO RESOURCES GROUP, INC., a registered broker-dealer and member of FINRA, SIPC, MSRB, and FSI. He is compensated through commissions based on the sale of securities, investment products, and trails received from the sale of mutual funds. Approximately 12% of his income is derived from these non-advisory activities. This may pose a conflict of interest to the extent that he could have a financial incentive to recommend securities and other investments that may result in commissions, brokerage fees, 12b-1 fees or other payments. However, Tom Moser is constrained by fiduciary principles to act in your best interest. In addition, you are under no obligation to purchase any recommended commission based products.

Tom has spent 27 years as a public educator in Tucson, Arizona. He currently teaches at the Lemar Academy of Excellence in Marana, Arizona. He chooses to be involved in his community by helping youth. During the past 25 years besides his classroom teaching, he has coached local youth sports, volunteered his time helping “at risk” youth in a nearby detention facility, and taught Life Skills classes to disadvantaged youth.

Item 5- Additional Compensation

Tom Moser does not receive compensation for advisory services other than fees paid by the client, or as disclosed in the client’s Investment Management Agreement.

Item 6 - Supervision

Tom Moser is supervised by Antonio Camejo, Chief Compliance Officer. Antonio Camejo can be reached at 305-372-0299 Ext. 405 or at acamejo@prginc.net.

Tom Moser is required to adhere to PRAG’s processes and procedures as described in our Code of Ethics. We will monitor the advice that Tom gives you by reviewing the relevant account opening documentation when the relationship is established and reviewing client correspondence periodically. In addition, account activity is reviewed at least annually to ensure that trading is in line with your stated objectives.

The firm utilizes a team approach in designing and supervising client portfolios. The Investment Committee reviews policies and strategies affecting client investments. It is a consultative body which confers from time to time to analyze market conditions and discuss general investment ideas and/or review specific products which may be suitable for certain types of clients. Members of the committee are available to Investment Advisor Representatives for consultations regarding individual client portfolios, or the suitability of specific products. The Committee recommends that Investment Advisor Representatives review the following with clients at least once a year: investment objectives, targeted allocation, current allocation, suitability, performance, number of trades, monthly distributions, concentrated positions, diversification, and outside holdings. PRAG current Investment Committee members are: Antonio Camejo, Chairman; J. Christopher Cogswell, AIF® CCIP® (Portfolio Manager, PRAG Managed Risk Strategies); Douglas Goldstein, CFP®; Aaron Katsman; Ann-Marja Lander CFP® AIF®; Thomas L. Moser (Portfolio Manager, High Impact Investments), Associate Director; Joyce K. Moore, ChFC, LUTCF.
